Experiencing an April Verch show is like hopping a supersonic freight train from an old lumber camp in northern Ontario, across the wide open prairie, through the Appalachians, down the Mississippi to the Louisiana Bayou, across the sea to Brazil, France, the Scottish Highlands and back, with stops at Carnegie Hall and church thrown in for good measure. An April Verch concert is equal parts invigorating, surprising, heartbreaking, heartwarming, haunting, charming, thrilling, foot-stomping, faith restoring, and smile inducing — all in all, utterly unforgettable. It's a musical journey you do not want to miss!

The Hampshire County Arts Council welcomes persons with disabilities at all of its activities. To request accessibility services to participate, contact 304-496-8201 or performances@hampshirearts.org and we will do our best to accommodate.
